

UIAA Ice Climbing Training Camp
Champagny-en-Vanoise, France
27-28 August 2026

Training Venue Address

- Champagny-en-Vanoise Ice Tower – Champagny-le-haut

Accommodation – must be organised by the athlete

- Camping at the structure
- Refuge de Bois, Champagny-le-haut

Training Camp – 50 Euros per athlete

2 UIAA International Route setters will set a variety of levels of routes for you to train on for the 2 days of the camp. The route setters will also set a variety of different style of moves for you to be able to test yourself on.

Discussions

Meet with UIAA/WIC officials, event organisers and other athletes and put forward your ideas on the future direction of our sport and shape the strategy of ice climbing for the next 3 years – details on topics and timings will be communicated nearer the time of the camp.

On the 28-29 August – independent training is possible to train on the tower.

Equipment

Athletes will need to bring their own climbing gear, as well as their own ropes. By participating in this camp, they agree to use the UIAA safety regulations regarding use of safety equipment.
